that this Time series— this arrangement of past, present and future— is not simply the way life comes to us but the way all things really We tend to assume that the whole universe and God Himself are always on from to just as we do." 2. "Almost certainly God is in Time. His life [existence] does not consist of one another." 3. "Everyone who believes in God at all believes that He what you and I are to do ?" 4. "All the days are "Now" for Him. He does not you doing things ; He simply you doing them, because, though you have yesterday, He has not. He does not you doing things tomorrow; He simply you doing them: because, though tomorrow is not yet for , it is for" 5. Extra credit: What is the 4 th dimension? What do you get when you "unfur!" a 3 dimensional cube into 2 dimensions – a 4 dimensional cube into 3 dimensions? (This is NOT in the book; but it IS related.) BOOK IV - CHAPTER 4: GOOD INFECTION

1.	Explaining how Jesus can be God's "begotten" Son without God e			_
	"before" the Son, "one thing can be the source, or the Father	the Son."

2.	Continuing this explanation, "In the same way we must think of the Son always, so to spea	k,	forth from the Fa	ther, like from a	, or heat from a	, or thoughts from a mind. He is the self-expression of the Father— what the Father has to say. And th	ere never was a	when H	le was not it."
3.	"All sorts of people are fond of repeating the Christian statement that 'God is love'. But they seem not to notice that the words 'God is love' have no real unless God contains at least Love is something that one person has for another person. If God was a person, then before the world was, He was not love.			, them. They are not a sort of prize which God could, if He chose, just out to anyone. They are a great fountain of and spurting up at the very centre of Once a man is to God, how could he not live?

	Once a man is from God, what can he do but and?"
7.	"We are not begotten by God, we are only by Him: in our natural state we are not of God, only (so to speak)
	. We have not got Zoe or life: only Bios or life which is presently going to run down and die.
8.	"Now the whole offer which Christianity makes is this: that we, if we God have His, come to in the life of Christ. If we do, we shall then be sharing a life which was, not , which always has existed and always will exist.
9.	"If we share in this kind of life we also shall of God. We shall the Father as He does and the Holy Ghost will arise us. He came to this world and became a man in order to to other men the kind of He has— by what I call 'good . Every Christian is to become a little Christ. The whole of becoming a Christian is simply else.
